

Gökhan Gelişen, Ph.D., P.E., P.M.P., LEED AP BD+C, ENV SP

Dr. Gelisen has been in the construction industry for about 20 years and he has been working for TAV Tepe Akfen Investment Construction and Operation Co. since 2015. He has participated in several mega projects including Development of Bahrain, Abu Dhabi, Muscat, Tbilisi, Istanbul Ataturk, Istanbul Grand, and LaGuardia International Airports; Marina 101 and Damac Towers; Emaar Square North Tower, Mall and Car Park; Croton WTP and Newtown Creek WPCP Facilities; Metropolitan Transportation Authority and Port Authority Capital Security Programs; Integrated Electronic Security System and Command, Communications and Control; East Side Access; and Hudson-Bergen Light Rail Transit System.

His professional specialty areas include contracts, risk management, conflict resolution, estimating, planning, and BIM. He is registered as a Professional Engineer in the state of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut. He is also a registered Project Management Professional, LEED AP BD+C, Envision Sustainability Professional and a Six Sigma Yellow Belt.

He has served as the Vice President of Federation of Turkish American Associations and as the head of the technology advancement advisory committee. He also served as the President of Society of Turkish American Architects, Engineers and Scientists in 2009.

He holds a Ph.D. degree in Construction Management from Polytechnic Institute of NYU, a M.S. degree in Computer Science from Columbia University, a M.S. degree in Structural Engineering from Lehigh University, and a B.S degree in Civil Engineering from Middle East Technical University. He is a graduate of TED Ankara College and he is married with one daughter.