

Yasemin Cetinel is the founding partner of Cetinel Law Firm, in Istanbul specialized in international investment and commercial arbitration, with a specific focus on construction disputes. She holds a postgraduate degree in international commercial arbitration from the Queen Mary and Westfield College, University of London. She is currently enrolled in Quantity Surveying (M.Sc.) programme in Heriot-Watt University, Edinburg-Scotland. Yasemin has been involved in numerous ICSID arbitrations, including cases against the Republic of Kyrgyzstan, the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, the Republic of Georgia and the Republic of Turkmenistan. She represents and advises contractors of various nationalities in projects or cases in Eastern Europe, Middle East and North Africa, Turkic Countries, Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America and Australia. Yasemin has extensive experience on FIDIC/ICE based contracts, EPC contracts, construction contracts with Turkish, Middle Eastern, Venezuelan and Iranian state entities; as well as on dispute board proceedings in construction contracts. Yasemin has been appointed as a sole arbitrator by the ICC and as a Dispute Board Member in a major hospital project by the owner of the project. Yasemin serves as Dispute Resolution Board Foundation Representative for Turkey and is in the Board of Directors for the Region Two.